The sign over a wayside inn on the Jersey "Mosquito Tavern." That's where travellers stop and get a bite. There is a great deal of modesty in this world which will gaze at almost anythingprovided it can be seen through a crack. A family of young ladies, who reside up town, so often entertained their company on the front stoop, that they have gained the title of step-sisters.

"Have you got the rent ready at last?" "No sir; mother's gone out washing and forgot to put it out for you." "Did she tell you she'd forgotten?" "Yes, sir." A couple of reporters spent the night in :

cell with a man who was doomed to be hanged in Connecticut recently, and in the morning the prisoner was perfectly willing to die. Sabethia is a Kansas village with a cemetery. There is a sign painted on the fence opposite the cemetery reading: "To keep out of that place across the road, get your medicines at the corner drug store.' The gentlemen at the dinner table were dis-cussing the familiar line "An honest man is the noblest work of God," when a little son of the host spoke up and said : "It's not true. My mother's better's any man that was ever

A citizen of New Mexico being informed that in his absence a panther had attacked his wife and that she had beaten off and killed the animal, shrugged his shoulders and said : " Ef that panther had known her as well as I do he'd never riled her dander up; you bet." An alleged cable dispatch brings over the HONOLULU IRON WORKS CO. following story about Sara Bernhardt: She is extremely sensitive of newspaper criticism. Not long ago she said: "One thing would prevent me from going to America—namely, if I felt that the newspapers would treat me too severely. Some London papers have treated me very badly. I once complained to the Prince of Wales of the matter, and he replied, "My dear friend, you are not so badly spoken of as my mother is."

A renowned New York clergyman, lately preached rather a long sermon from the text:
"Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting." After the congregation had listened about an hour, some began to get weary, and went out; others soon tollowed, greatly to the annoyance of the minister. Another person started, whereupon the parson stopped in his sermon, and said, "That is right, gentlemen, as fast as you are weighed, pass out!" He continued his sermon at some length after that, but no one disturbed him by leaving.

Synalæpha is the cutting off a vowel at the end of a word before another at the beginning of a word, as " Ishaway we have in th' army. Eathlipsis is the cutting off the letter "m' before another word, as "We won't go he' till morning." Orsais is the contraction of two syllables into one, as "Till d'light desh pear." Discresis is the revolving one syllable into two, as "P' be sha joily good a' of fellow."

An old minister in Scotland had the habit in teaching his people of expounding the Scriptures book by book and chapter by chapter, and, of course, the good man sometimes came to passages hard to be understood. His way of getting over a difficulty was very convenient, to say the least of it. He would say:
"No doubt, my Christian brethren, there is a great difficulty here, as the commentators are agreed upon that; so let us look the difficulty boildy in the face and—pass on."

As soon as the meeting was fairly under way, Brother Gardner announced that Judge Affidavy Martin, late of Alabama, but now traveling in the north as the agent of a patent fish-hook, was present and desired to address the Club on the subject named above. It was voted to hear the address, and after being received in due form and introduced, the Judge stood upon the platform and began: "We must not look in de past for our fuchur. No mas kin fell what do nex' hun'red y'ss will bring fo'th by lookin' ober de fence of ole graveyards. What am our fuchur? Who kin tell what dis nashun will amount to if it keeps on in de way it has bogun? If any one had tole you twenty years ago dat to-night I would stan' befo' you wid a paper collah on by nack, you wad have as him down as an accomplished even mo' dan dat. For de sum cafilty cents you kin have a brass watch chain had up so nigh like gold dat you can work it out hear trade for fifty dollars. Be anybody had ald George Washington dat de day would can when shirts would button behind, what we'd dat great man have asid? Dis kentry and mashir y clook. There time de pend'lus.

This Corporation, organized in 1843, for the purpose f insuring lives, is conducted solely in the interest of its policy-holders, to whom, in their collective capacity belong its entire assets. All the profits are divided mong them, and there are no stockholders to contro! the Company or to take any portion of its surplus.

The Company long since attained and now holds the foremost place among the Life Institutions of the world. Its unprecedented success, since its organiza tion to the present time, is attributable to its great care in selection of risks. Its great care in (less than those of any other Company) and its un-swerving fidelity to the interests of its policy holders. Its assets are larger, surplus greater premiums lower and dividends higher in proportion han those of any other Company. The magnitude of its business proves that it enjoys the confidence of the people. It deals only in legitimate Life Insurance, and vill not issue Tontine policies.

Beyond and above all the liabilities computed by the New York legal standard, it has a surplus fund exceed ng Eleven Millions of Dollars. The Company has paid to its policy holders: And during the year 1879...... 14,015,555 48

Of which $80,000 has been paid to Claim ants for Losses in the Hawaiian Islands.

The Company presents to those needing insurance s security unequalled by any similar institution. It has never disputed a claim which was shown to be just and right, and has carefully sought and practiced the most equitable systems for the division of the surplus and for discriminating between the varied interests of its man

The Rates for Life Insurance in this Company were reduced 15 per cent in 1879.

Insurance affording the most ample and complete Fi nancial Security can be procured at reduced rates. For information and terms, apply to
